

Election Information

The Town of Indian River Shores holds elections every even-numbered year to elect two or three of the five-member Town Council. The next election for Indian River Shores Town Council is November 8, 2022.

The qualifying period for the November 2022 Town Council election begins at 8:00 am on Monday, July 25, 2022 and continues until noon on Friday, July 29, 2022.

Anyone interested in becoming an Indian River Shores council member must have been a resident of the Town for at least one year prior to the election. Council members are elected "at large," which means that each council member is elected by a Town-wide vote rather than from a specific district within the Town. Town Council candidates must:

1. Be a citizen of the United States.
2. Be a registered Elector of Indian River County and of The Town of Indian River Shores.
3. Have resided in the Town for a period of one (1) year immediately preceding the election in which they are a candidate.
4. Not have served eight (8) or more consecutive years as a Town Council member immediately preceding the election in which they are a candidate.
5. Be able to attend Council meetings, usually held on the 4th Thursday of every month.
6. Be available to represent the Town on various local boards or committees at monthly or irregularly scheduled meetings.
7. Please refer to the Town Charter and Code of Ordinances for additional information.

Current Candidates:

- Brian T. Foley
- Jesse L. "Sam" Carroll, Jr.
